

PRESS RELEASE

Join us at the launch of the Urbino 18 hydrogen bus, and the #SolarisTalks 2022 conference

Bolechowo, 01.08.2022

The online launch of the hydrogen-powered articulated Urbino 18 hydrogen bus made by Solaris will take place on 14th September. As part of the same event, the manufacturer invites you to an international e-mobility conference #SolarisTalks 2022.

Slated for 14th September in an online setting, the launch of the Solaris Urbino 18 hydrogen bus is one of the most important industry events this autumn. The latest model is a new generation hydrogen-fuelled vehicle in the zero-emission offering of Solaris. Along with the unveiling of the new innovative bus, Solaris invites you to the third edition of the #SolarisTalks conference. This event, dedicated to e-mobility, is an exceptional opportunity to listen to experts' presentations and to learn from the experiences of practitioners who develop modern zero-emission public transport.

Both events will be live streamed and can therefore be followed online on the manufacturer's website www.solarisbus.com. Prior registration is not required.

See you on 14th September!

More details to follow soon.
